

IN RECOGNITION OF "LOIS D'ANTIGNAC KENDALL"

Whereas, Mrs. Lois Kendall started her 32 year teaching career in Terre Haute, Indiana, where she taught third grade at Thornton Elementary; and

WHEREAS, Lois is retiring from Brookwood Elementary School after 13 years of teaching 1st grade; and

Whereas, the following special message is sent from the parents and faculty;

"For the hundreds of tears you've wiped, the loose teeth you've pulled, the prompting you've done behind stage, the late nights you were up making Christmas ornaments and the "I Made It" stars that made behaving worthwhile....Lois Kendall, this is your day. Your unending dedication to education will forever be remembered by the hundreds of students who were ever privileged enough to call you "teacher." For making a difference in the lives of the hundreds of children you've taught... Lois Kendall, "YOU'VE MADE IT!"

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bob Young, Mayor of the City of Augusta, do hereby proclaim May 17, 2002 to be "Lois D'Antignac Kendall Day" and urge all citizens to join in the recognition of her contributions to our community and our children.

IN WITNESSES THEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of Augusta, Georgia to be affixed this 17th day of May 2002.
